

Larry Stamm Ministries

Equipping Christians to Confidently Share Jesus

PRESS RELEASE

Larry Stamm's path to Christianity could be called anything but ordinary. Although he isn't the first Jew for Jesus, his religious transformation remains unique.

Missionary, musician, author, and a former professional tennis coach, Stamm's mission to equip Christians to be successful witnesses for Jesus Christ has taken him throughout North America.

He was raised in a Reform Jewish home in Florida, and became Bar Mitzvah at 13. He says he always believed in God, but like many in his religious community, his experience was mostly a matter of social and cultural events and traditions.

It wasn't until he came to know Jesus in 1987, that his Jewish heritage found a deeper meaning within the context of a personal relationship with the God of Israel.

It is that conversion, combined with a deep desire to share his story and his faith that led him to found Larry Stamm Ministries (LSM), a not-for-profit organization that seeks to make the Gospel of Jesus a confident topic of conversation for every Christian.

Stamm's mission to equip Christians to be successful witnesses for Jesus Christ has taken him throughout North America.

Primary to his mission is providing encouragement and tools for Christians within the ever-changing world dynamics.

To that end, LSM offers evangelism workshops, one-to-one evangelism coaching, and biblical messages about connections between the Old and New Testaments.

Workshops include: Jewish Roots of Christianity and Personal Evangelism Primer. Each offers six-hours of learning in an interactive setting.

To further his ministry he recently authored Serving in His Court: Biblical Principles for Personal Evangelism from the Heart of a Coach. He notes, "One of the defining works of the Christian life is sharing the Gospel. Nothing is more important and few things are more frightening. Knowing what needs to be done and how to do it are very different things."

Stamm has been a member of Grace Fellowship Church in Johnson City, TN, for more than 20-years.

For more information on Larry Stamm Ministries, visit larrystamm.org or call 423-426-5055.